12 1-2 Corded Madras and Percales 10c Yard.

You'll find them in the basement.

The prettiest, freshest goods of the season in Polka-dots and pretty stripings—no short lengths—all in the full piece and all of them entirely new.

Same quality of goods that you've paid 12 1-2c for many a time, not only here, but everywhere, as the fabrics are actually worth it, but when we get bargains in the wholesale market we give you the benefit at retail.

New Jardinieres at About Half the Regular Prices.

Fine Lou Weller Ware—a domestic pottery—but it looks like the imported Rockwood ware.

Three dozen 10-inch Jardinieres, decorated in underglazed raised figures. Buying these 36 articles in connection with some other pottery brought the Jardinieres to us at about half price, and we can offer them at $1.00 each, when their value is really two dollars a piece.

Miss Roberta Allen was chairman of the afternoon at the Women's Club yesterday, and led in the discussion of "Current Events," to which the attention of the audience was called.

Miss Allen dwelt especially upon recent national events, not going into details for lack of time, but touching comprehensively, if briefly, upon such interesting questions as the doing of the Fifty-seventh Congress, the extra session of the Senate and the reasons for it, the Panama Canal and its possibilities, the Venezuelan embargo and its probable results, the report of the Labor Commission, the Adams Junction, and the child labor question.

Miss Allen also gave brief mention to prohibition, suffrage and philanthropy, and was heard with close and flattering attention.

Miss Eleanor Tree followed Miss Allen and presented the interesting side of foreign "Current Events." Miss Tree passed under review the Macedonian struggle for liberty, the Irish agitation, the state of unrest in China, the main rest of the Chinese, the Chinese revolution, Secretary Joseph Chamberlain from South Africa and the effect of his presence in that country, the Moroccan question and many bright and crisp little items of the day.

The Norfolk Kindergarten Association, which arranged to have Miss Blow deliver this delightful talk here, feel that they were unusually fortunate as it was through the generosity of Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, who has given the means for Miss Blow to deliver her lecture in eight Southern cities. In Richmond last week she was enthusiastically received at the Woman's Club, Governor Montague introducing her. In each of these eight Southern cities a scholarship is to be given for the Phoebe Hearst training school, so one of Norfolk's scholars will be fortunate in receiving one. Miss Blow felt a particular interest in her visit to Norfolk, as her ancestors lie buried here. Her grandfather, Peter Blow, went from here to St. Louis, and her father was Henry Taylor Blow, of the large family of that name in Norfolk. She was accompanied by Miss Nels, who is the principal of the Phoebe Hearst training school. They were entertained by Mr. Harry Goodridge in a drive around the city that afternoon, expressing themselves as much pleased at the beauty of our town. Miss Blow's home is at Casanova, N. Y., but spends most of her time in the interest of this great work, traveling around. She is a woman of charming personality, who will be remembered by all those who heard her on Thursday.

Picture dresses worn by Lady Sybil Primrose's bridesmaids Saturday were a most trying combination of color of primroses and pale pink. They were Lord Rosebery's racing colors. They may have been worn by the bridesmaids, but are open to criticism in Epson Church. Lady Crew's bridesmaids adopted the combination to an extent, but confined it to feathers and flowers in their head-dresses.

The New York Herald of Sunday contained the following interesting announcement:

Miss Sophy Griswold Marshall, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Marshall, who is to be married to Mr. Julien Jacquelin Mason on Saturday, May 9th, in the Church of the Incarnation, Madison Avenue and Thirty-fifth Street, has not yet decided on her bridesmaids, for the reason that two of the young women invited are now on their way from Europe. There will be, probably, a maid of honor and eight bridesmaids in the bridal procession.

Mr. Mason has selected Mr. Willis Browning to be his best man. His ushers will be Dr. George Bolling, Frank E. Gues, William Thornton Mason, Enoch Scholty, J. D. Mason, Clement S. Henry and Barry Marshall.

THE REV. DR. TIGERT AT BROAD-STREET

Two Great Sermons Sunday by the Distinguished Minister.

Two powerful sermons were preached Sunday at the Broad-Street Methodist Church by Dr. J. Tigert, book editor of the Southern Methodist Church, and one of the most distinguished ministers in the denomination.

In the morning Dr. Tigert preached on "The Companionship of God," a sermon taken from the One Hundred and Thirty-ninth Psalm. He spoke in opposition to the agnostic theory of the diminution of God from human life, and declared that life would be a fiddle and a mystery without God. The presence of God in it is the only explanation of it.

At night Dr. Tigert preached a great sermon from the text: "If ye know these things, blessed are ye if ye do them."

Mr. Horace F. Baker has just returned to his home on Fourth Avenue from a business trip.

Miss Ivy Beal, of Richmond, who has been visiting Miss Virginia Beal, on Third Avenue and Willow Street, has returned home.

Mr. Mevrell B. Van Doren, of Albemarle county, has been visiting his brother, Mr. Jacob Van Doren, on Juniper Street. Mr. Van Doren has been spending some time in Texas, and his health is much improved thereby.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doane, who formerly resided near Highland Springs, have moved to their new home, near Chestnut Hill.

Mr. Virginia L. Woods, who has been spending some time with friends on Church Hill, returned to her home on Third Avenue Saturday afternoon.

The commissioners have appointed a committee to confer with the representatives of the Richmond Passenger and Power Co. some time this week, looking toward having the cars once more run around the "loop," through the suburbs of Highland Park.

Mr. Richard T. Sale, of Willow Street and Third Avenue, who has been quite sick, is somewhat better.

Mr. Lewis L. Holiday, formerly of Chestnut Hill, has purchased a large farm in Orange county. He expects to devote a great deal of time to stock raising.

Ascension Guild met yesterday evening at the residence of Mrs. William H. Tyler, on Burns Street, Highland Park, at 8:30 P. M. Among those present were Mrs. John R. Livesey, Mrs. Rosecrantz, Mrs. Charles G. Shaffer, Miss Kuyk, Mrs. Lynn Enslow and Mrs. William H. Tyler.

The game of ball between the Chestnut Hill team and the "Colts," of Richmond, which was played Saturday afternoon, resulted in a score of 16 to 12 in favor of the Chestnut Hill team. Batteries: Chestnut Hill—Robert Carlton and Heath Clark; "Colts"—William Robins and P. M. Shepherd.

Mr. Andrew Scott, of "Fairfield," is visiting in King and Queen county.

Among the numerous recent improvements on the Northside, none are more noticeable than the new style electric lights. Enclosed are lights have been substituted for the old style. Better sidewalks are promised us in the very near future. Estimates have already been made on the work, but contracts have not been let.

Miss Emma Quarles, formerly of Highland Park, is very sick at her home on Chestnut Hill.

Miss A. Louise Austin, of Spruce Street and Third Avenue, has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Scott, on West Grace Street, Richmond.

Mr. Propert, of Second Avenue, Highland Park, who was very badly injured some time ago in a railroad accident, is able to be about. Mr. Propert is a valued employee of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad. He is not permanently injured.

Mrs. Loveman Coleman, formerly a resident of Highland Park, has gone to Fredericksburg, where she will spend the summer.

Miss Carrie G. Todd, of "Walnut Hill," returned home a few days ago from Fork Union, Fluvanna county, where she was maid of honor at the wedding of her brother, Mr. Wirt L. Todd.

TO TAKE POSSESSION OF SHAFER BUILDING

It is probable the Federal government will take possession of the Shafer building property on the first of May. District Attorney Lewis has been investigating the title to the property, and it is understood that he has found it to be safe and sound. He has reported this to the Treasury Department, and it is to be presumed that his recommendations will be adopted.

Within a month the collector of customs, Mr. Stewart, will take charge of the property, and collect the rents. In the meantime the plans for the improvements, to suit the postoffice purposes, will be decided upon and carried into effect.

Day of Sunshine.

"A Day of Sunshine" was given Sunday morning in the Sunday-school of the Second Baptist Church. The occasion was a most delightful one. The programme was as follows:

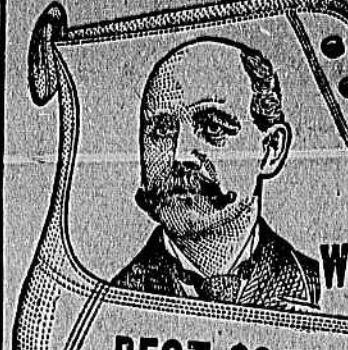

Overture, by orchestra; hymn; Lord's Prayer (in concert); hymn; opening sentences; prayer by William E. Lyon, Esq.; roll call of officers and teachers; quartette; Scripture reading, by Mr. J. B. Ramsey; prayer by Mr. A. H. Robins; hymn; P. Matthews; quartette; hymn; collection, etc.; overture; hymn; report and notices; closing hymn; dismissal, with benediction.

Property Transfers.
